Minutes of the meeting

Following members attended the meeting of IQAC held on 25th August 2022 at 3:30 p.m. in Principal's office. The minutes of the meeting are as follows:

1. Dr. K. R. Rajput, IQAC coordinator, placed the minutes of previous meeting before the committee and the committee members confirmed the minutes unanimously.
2. Dr. M. K. Gupta and Dr. P.A. Khanzode opened the discussion on outcomes of CBCS pattern as the IQAC coordinator Dr. Rajput had read the second point on agenda. Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University had made it mandatory to all affiliated colleges to introduce new CBCS syllabus. Dr. M. K. Gupta pointed out that the CBCS pattern is an ambitious pattern to improve students' ability to understand the contents of the syllabus more effectively as it had been designed with the intention of student's ability to think critically and their ability to analyze things. Dr. P.A. Khanzode endorsed Dr. Gupta's view and added that new pattern is a skill oriented and student centric and lauded the members of board of studies of all subjects and the members of academic council for putting their efforts to design the syllabus. Ku. Vaishnavi Bandu Nikhade, student representative, had raised her doubts about CBCS pattern as she asked question about academic bank which is a digital bank to deposit students' credits. She said that students found it difficult to understand the credit based system. She requested Dr. Khanzode, Principal L.T.M. to organize a learning session for students.
3. The discussion was held on the utility and effectiveness of skill oriented courses as Dr. Rajput took up the third point of agenda. Prof. H. B. Patelpaik and Dr. S. G. Pund talked about the validity and effectiveness of skill oriented courses keeping the requirement of students in mind. Dr. P.A. Khanzode was of the view that more and more skill oriented courses with variety of their contents are needed to be introduced for students. In his view, these courses support the learning of students. At the same time, he also added that the skill oriented courses must be designed in a way to withstand the test of time.
4. Since all important issues were discussed in detail, the meeting was concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. P. A. Khanzode, Principal.

Minutes of the meeting

Following members attended the meeting of IQAC held on 10th March 2023 at 3.30 p.m. in Principal's office. The minutes of the meeting are as follows:

1. Dr. K.R. Rajput, IQAC Coordinator, placed the minutes of previous meeting before the committee and the committee members confirmed minutes unanimously.
2. Prof. M.G. Bhujade opened the discussion on the pattern of National Education Policy as the IQAC coordinator Dr. Rajput had read the second point on agenda. Prof. Bhujade had said that the state government had asked state universities to implement the National Education Policy very soon and it has become necessary to hold a detail discussion on the pattern of education which the new education policy is going to introduce. Dr. K. R. Rajput shared a policy document to all committee members and asked them to focus their attention on the pattern of education. Dr. P. A. Khanzode drew the attention of all members to a break up of programme into four years and made a mention of multiple exits and entries into the system to make doors of education open for students. Dr. S. G. Pund praised the introduction of value added courses and moral education in new education policy. Overall the committee members looked satisfied and were hopeful to see the changing face of education.
3. Dr. P.A. Khanzode opened the discussion as Dr. Rajput read the third point on agenda. Dr. Khanzode saw a great possibility in future years for college and university teachers to share their views on different platforms. He further said that he would ask all faculty members to implement a faculty exchange programme with colleges other than ours. Dr. Gupta and Dr. Pund made positive remarks about the exchange of faculty and spoke about its immense benefits to students. All committee members had approved the decision unanimously.
4. Since all important issues were discussed in detail, the meeting was concluded with a vote of thanks given by Dr. Prasad A. Khanzode, Principal.
